

Hello, My name is Tristen. I'm 11 years old. My Grandma received a beautiful blanket in the mail from you. She gave it to me. I wanted to send a letter to thank you for the blanket. Here is $10.00 from my Grandma and *me. The blanket you gave is a treasure to me. Thank you!!

P.S.

Tristen, my granddaughter, is deeply touched by your story of sad, sometimes homeless children. She gave me the $10.00 so I could send/write a check in appreciation. She loves the blanket & wraps it around herself each night to remember native American children.

Thank you
Christina

Dear Fr. Stephen Huffstetter, SCJ:

You cannot imagine the thrill I received when I opened a box and found such a beautiful quilt inside!

I am a senior citizen, and unlike many of the present day generation, I know how much work goes into something like that. It is exquisite in both beauty and quality and I appreciate it so very much. It is an heirloom I will treasure and eventually pass on to a granddaughter. I had not given a thought to winning therefore it was a wonderful surprise as well as a treasured gift. Thank you so much!

Also, thank you for the info you sent me about an annuity. Unfortunately, the money I'd targeted to use for an annuity had to be used elsewhere.

Enclosed is a check for $40 to be used where needed most. I would like to give more but as I rely upon social security as income, my giving is limited. What you are doing for the young people there is appreciated and may God Bless you.

Sincerely,

Lillie R. Hall
